

JOY RIDE ENDS IN DEATH OF GIRL-- CITY IS SAVED $6,750--QUEER CASE

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 4, NO. 302

Chicago, Tuesday, Sept. 21, 1915

398

POLICE STATIONS IN CHI. ARE LOUSY

*Girl Arrested For Soliciting and Then Discharged Tells Thrilling Experience in Harrison St. Station—
She Got Used to Bed Bugs*

"Something was crawling along my bare back. I jumped with a scream that aroused the negress from her couch. We tore open my clothing, for I had not disrobed, and the colored girl's nimble fingers plucked a big grey louse from my skin.

GIRL KILLED IN "JOY RIDE"— OFFICER WILL DIE

Anna O'Malley, 19, Highland Park, is dead and John Rouse, Highland Park policeman, is dying, the result of a "joy ride" party early today.

The machine went over a bridge in Highland Park. The girl was killed and four others were injured, Rouse fatally. It was a "borrowed" car.

"Afterward I got so used to them that I simply itched them off when they awakened me. They didn't bother me so much as the bedbugs. But the first time I felt one I was so terror-stricken I felt I would go mad."

Mary Brown, 3738 W. 38th st., a white girl, was discharged in morals court today of a charge of soliciting. Though she was not guilty she has suffered enough in foul jail cells to